Tab A

The proposed project, when completed, would benefit the Office of Research and Reports by providing organized information from unclassified sources as well as innumerable references to source materials that may not have been brought to the attention of CIA analysts. Specifically, the various proposed chapters of the study would contribute to the following ORR projects in the manner indicated. (It could be noted that the first four chapters have been completed in answer to a DD/P request, and the proposed external research would cover solely the preparation of Chapters V through X.)
